Contend for the Faith

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. Jude 1:3

Paul was a man that contended for the faith. He learned the importance of pressing toward his goal. He learned not to let people stop him from completing the mission God sent him on. I want to encourage you to contend for the faith.

The word contend means to complete or strive in a rivalry in order to obtain a prize or reach a goal. It means to assert or maintain earnestly.

Scripture of Encouragement

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Matthew 6:33

God will strengthen you as you contend for the faith.

Nehemiah was bold and faithful to what God gave him to do. He did not allow opposition to stop him from completing his mission.

Nehemiah was a man that served in the Kings court. He was a cupbearer. He interceded on behalf of the people after hearing the condition of Jerusalem. He asked God to forgive them for the sins they had committed against God.

It was not good practice to serve the King with a sad face. The King asked Nehemiah what was wrong. He was afraid because knew it could cost him his life to be in the Kings presence with a sad countenance. He explained the reason for his sorrow and the King asked what his request was. Nehemiah prayed to God for what to say. He asked the King if he could go to Jerusalem to build the city.

This was a bold statement but he stepped out in faith and confidence and God answered his request by granting him favor and provision to complete the task. The King asked was how long was the journey and when he would return. This shows Nehemiah was a trusted servant. Nehemiah set a time and was released to go and complete the mission that was on his life.

Do not give in to an uprising of the enemy!

God will use men and women to help us complete the task that God gives us. You must contend for the faith, not give up or give in, even in the face of opposition.

The hand of God was on Nehemiah's life.

1. He shared Gods purpose Neh 1:1-11).
2. God guided Him as he prayed for wisdom and direction (Neh 2:12).
3. God gave him favor and help (Neh 2:18).
4. The hand of God was with him, which

- caused him to prosper and succeed in the work of the Lord (Neh 2:20).
5. He received renewed courage and faith in God (Neh 4:14,20).

Nehemiah did not reveal God's plan too soon!

Do not allow the enemy to throw you off when people rise against you in an attempt to hinder the work of God. Keep your eyes on God and allow Him to work through you!

When Nehemiah arrived in Jerusalem he was there three days, he arose in the night to go out and see the condition of the city. He did not share what God had placed in his heart to do. He viewed all the gates by night and saw the condition of the city. It had been burned down and consumed by fire.

In contending for the faith it is important to get the mind of God when He has called to you to a region, sometimes this entails being a stealth and only doing as the Lord directs and only sharing as God directs. Nehemiah used wisdom in order to find out the condition of the city and then in getting the mind of God to repair the wall.

He reviewed his intent to rebuild the wall after He knew the condition and had the direction of the Lord to begin to build.

Nehemiah met with opposition as soon as it was made known he was in Judah. Sanballat, Tobiah and Geshem laughed at Nehemiah they despised him accusing him of rebelling against the King. Nehemiah answered them and let them know that God would prosper them and they would build.

Do not come down or give in to an up rising of the enemy. Just as Paul contended each time he face the religious crowd you must be willing to contend for the faith, even in the face of opposition.

Jesus contended each time he entered his hometown and met with doubt and unbelief.

There will be times when the Lord will allow you to go through severe trial. He will allow things to come your way that will cause what you go through or endure to bring to a place of perfection in Him.

Not many could walk with Paul, he suffered abandonment, but the Lord was with him. Three men also stood with him through all

God will strengthen you and lead you through all the currents in your life!

he endured, Timothy, Silas, and Luke. Luke really tended to Paul especially in the afflictions he suffered. Paul later called for John Mark as he matured and Paul acknowledged that He was needful in the ministry.

To contend for the faith means

1. To be willing to stand against all odds.
2. To be willing to stand when everyone leaves.
3. To be willing to stand when those you look up to leave you.
4. To love in spite of all you may have to endure.
5. To complete your race and allow nothing to fall to the ground when it comes to the assignments God gives you.
6. Stand for the truth of the gospel without compromise.

Stephen was a man full of the Holy Ghost, when he met with opposition he stood firm on his faith, contended in the face of death. As those who grew to hate him opposed the word he spoke and proceeded to stone him Stephen prayed for them and asked God not to lay it to their charge (Acts 7:54-60).

The greatest example we have is Jesus, He prayed for those who crucified him asking God to forgive them because they did not know what they were doing (Luke 23:34).

It is a given that as a believer you will encounter spiritual warfare. Demonic forces and opposition will come against you but God will give you the strength you need to contend for the faith. He will give you the stamina to run your race with patience.

I encourage you to contend for the faith. Do not stop, finish your race, and finish strong in the name of the Lord!

Prophetic Word from the Lord

The Lord says this is your year of restoration. I will restore the years that the locusts has eaten, the cankerworm and the palmerworm my great army which I sent among you says the Lord (Joel 2:25).

The Lord says I will restore. I will give back that that the enemy has stolen and devoured says the Lord.

This is your year of restoration, you have come through a great storm. After the storm comes a calm and fresh rain says the Lord. I never left you and I will continue to be with you says the Lord.

For I am the Lord your God and I change not.

The suffering you have endured has been to complete and mature you, to establish and settle you says the Lord.

Stay in the vein of the Holy Ghost, continue to walk with me, and as you do this I will prove myself that I am God and I will manifest myself in your life.

Continue to move forward and shed everything that I show you that I cannot use and in this I will be glorified in your life says the Lord.
